

Date 13-06-2012

SLP28 – a customised LP50 with painted railing

When an old hospital in Sweden should be converted into residences they had an accessibility problem with difference in level between the half-levels.

To solve this problem three customised LP50 with painted railing and a lower level platform gate were installed.

